Your degree must have been awarded by a college or university accredited by a regional, national, or specialized agency recognized as an accrediting agency by the U.S. Department of Education/U.S. Secretary of Education. If your degree was awarded by an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. A list of acceptable companies who provide this service can be found on the New York State Civil Service website. You must pay the required evaluation fee.

Duties: This is a highly important administrative position involving responsibility for all police functions and requiring exceptional ability to plan and direct law enforcement activities on a large scale. The instruction and training of recruits, as well as the maintenance of high standards of performance throughout the department, are the final responsibilities of the Chief. General administrative policies and objectives are outlined by the Mayor. A Police Chief (City of Salamanca) does related work as required.

Subject of Examination: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

Knowledge of law enforcement methods, practices, and procedures - These questions test for knowledge of accepted police methods and practices and/or their application to situations in the police field. The questions are a sampling of the various knowledge that police personnel may be required to possess in the course of their day-to-day, work-related activities. Areas covered include investigation procedures, patrol techniques, police-community relations, courtroom procedures, personnel practices, policy making and budgeting procedures.

Knowledge of New York State laws – Criminal - These questions test the candidates' knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2023. This portion of the test is a sampling of the various sections of the law that police personnel may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities. Laws covered may include the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Vehicle and Traffic Law, Family Court Act, and other laws relevant to law enforcement in New York State.

Police Administrative Supervision and Administration - These questions test for the knowledge of managerial functions involved in directing the operations of a B or C level police department as well as the knowledge of the principles and practices involved in supervising a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. These questions cover such areas as: developing objectives and formulating policies; forecasting and planning; organizing and coordinating; informing and instructing; guiding and leading; decision-making and problem solving; communicating effectively; staffing and staff development; time management; assigning work and evaluating performance; handling conflict and grievances; and budgeting.

Job simulation exercises in police administration - This job simulation exercise will cover such areas as: human resources management, prioritizing, problem-solving, public relations, and police procedure.

Understanding and interpreting written material - These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.

Preparing written material in a police setting - These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police personnel write. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order of the sentences.

Job simulation exercise in police command - This job simulation exercise will cover such areas as: management of operations, decision-making under pressure, public relations, and police procedure.

Test guide: A Guide for the Written Test for Police Chief/Assistant Chief is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.

Use of calculators is prohibited for this examination.
